International composition contest

announced by Forum Zeitgenössischer Musik Leipzig and rp-Gruppe for a piece of the maximal length of 2-4 minutes (the time it takes to eat a hamburger)

Instrumentation

- clarinet (also small clarinet/bass clarinet), trumpet, drum kit (vibraphone, bass and snare drum, tom-tom, bongos, cymbal, high hat, tam-tam, gong, various small instruments like a block of wood, a cowbell, a rattle etc.), violin, mezzo-soprano or tenor
- smaller instrumentation or solo pieces are also possible
- electronic or live-electronic pieces are possible (maximal 4-channel and 1 sound engineer)

Theme

- The piece should be related to Fast-Food, food, the production process or the situation of consumption in a fast-food restaurant etc. in an inventive, critical or humorous way.
- A jury will choose maximally 12 pieces out of the submissions. The chosen pieces will be performed during a concert of the concert series FreiZeitArbeit in the Burger King affiliate Radefeld.

Way of submission

- There has to be submitted a score in triplicate.
- If the piece is an electronic one, a cd with the recording should be submitted.
- The compositions should be sumbitted in triplicate anonymously as follows:

  - Each score/composition/cd etc. has to have a keyword.
  - The score has to be labeled (in addition to the keyword) with the title of the piece and the country of origin of the composer.
  - The papers have to include furthermore a closed envelope (with keyword) with the following content: name and contact information of the submitter, a signed declaration that the submitted piece has not been performed to the time of submission

Deadline and address for submission

- The compositions have to be sent till Thursday, 15th of September 2010 at the latest to the following adress:

  Forum Zeitgenössischer Musik Leipzig [FZML]
  Kohlgartenstraße 24
  04315 Leipzig
  Germany

Prize money

- The chosen compositions will receive a prize money of 400 € each.
- Regrettably, travel and production expanses cannot be paid.